

The Information Booklet reflects the author's view, so the Agency for Mobility and the EU programmes and the European Commission are not responsible for its content

Vesna Brkljačić and
Mario Šušak

Velika Gorica Secondary School of Economics and the Croatian Association of Economy to Germany in Franz-Böhm-Schule in Frankfurt

Velika Gorica Secondary School of Economics,
Ul. kralja S. Tomaševića 21, 10410 Velika Gorica, Croatia

Vesna Brkljačić, headmistress
Erasmus+ for the staff
Erasmus+ for the students
E-Twinning

Tel./Fax.: 01 6265 239

ured@ss-ekonomska-velikagorica.skole.hr

www.ss-ekonomska-velikagorica.skole.hr

Velika Gorica Secondary School of Economics and the Croatian Association of Economy to Germany

The results of the Erasmus+, K1 mobility project

Vocational training of the students and professional improvement of the staff of the Velika
Gorica Secondary School of Economics

In Frankfurt

The Results of the Vocational Training

Students in Frankfurt

Fourteen students were being trained during a fortnight's time from September 21 to October 4, 2014.

Eight teachers were being professionally trained during six days from September 21 to September 26, 2014.

Lucija Tolić, student:

"Such projects should be largely encouraged and promoted as they are the key to the development of young people, especially students."

Ana Bradić, student:

"I was highly honoured to have been given a chance to spend two weeks in Frankfurt and to brush up my German. ... I would recommend such an experience to everyone as it is very useful and educational."

Eugen Pećarić, student:

"... I learnt a lot of useful things there. Moreover, I brushed up my German and improved my Excel skills."

Vocational Training of the Students

Companies where the students had their vocational training:

Miles d.o.o. / BAS GmbH
KWVD
Landesfachschule des Kfz- Gewerbes Hessen
STEKO Bau GmbH - Generalbauträger
Kontis d.o.o.
Hrvoje Ursic Zurich Versicherung
Katholisches Rentamt Kelkheim
AOK
H.E.T.e.k. Möbel und Bauschreinerei

Professional Improvement of the Staff

Schedule:

Teachers in front of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange

During the twelve mobility activities, the teachers visited the Croatian Association of Economy to Germany, The Consulate General of the Republic of Croatia to Frankfurt, The Chamber of Trades and Crafts, the Franz-Böhm-Schule Secondary School of Economics, the Kingerschule Secondary School of Economics and AOK Insurance Company

The staff professional improvement was being carried out through the activities as follows:

Activity 1: Dual system of vocational education and training and opportunities of further education

Activity 2: Presentation of the so called Uberbetriebliche Ausbildung

Activity 3: City sightseeing with the employee of the Croatian Association of Economy to Germany (the Cathedral, the Goethe Museum, the Panoramic View Tower ...)

Activity 4: Getting introduced with economic education opportunities and programmes

Activity 5: Visit to the Consulate General of the Republic of Croatia to Frankfurt

Activity 6: Visit to The Chamber of Trades and Crafts (Handwerkskammer Frankfurt-Rhein-Main)

Activity 7: Visit to the Franz-Böhm-Schule Secondary School of Economics and getting introduced with education programmes: office management, insurance office worker, foreign languages employee

Activity 8: Visit to the company where the students had their vocational training, i.e. AOK-health insurance, and to the Croatian Association of Economy to Germany

Activity 9: Visit to the Klingserschule Secondary School of Economics and getting introduced with the economic education programmes as well as with the EU school projects

Activity 10: Dinner in the Wagner traditional Frankfurt restaurant

Activity 11: the Croatian Association of Economy to Germany: Possibilities of acknowledging Croatian economic professions in Germany

Activity 12: Evaluation and issuing certificates

Velika Gorica Secondary School of Economics,

Ul. kralja S. Tomaševića 21, 10410
Velika Gorica, Croatia

Vesna Brkljačić, headmistress

Erasmus+ for the staff

Erasmus+ for the students

E-Twinning

For further information, please contact us at:

ured@ss-ekonomska-velikagorica.skole.hr